JUDGMENT

Petitioner retired on 30.11.2005. Petitioner alleges that he is suffering from Pappillary Carcinoma thyroid from 1999 and he is undergoing treatment in the RCC, Thiruvananthapuram. Petitioner has produced some bills. I note that the bills would show that the amount paid by him is very small. But counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has other bills.

2. Heard counsel for the respondents also.

Even though the petitioner sought a writ of mandamus, the petitioner has not even moved the respondents. In such circumstances, I do not find any reason to entertain this writ petition. Accordingly the writ petition is closed without prejudice to the right of the petitioner to move the respondents by producing materials to show that the petitioner has spend on medical bills.

(K.M. JOSEPH, JUDGE)
